

HARTWELL MAY GET THE JOB.

Lanterman's Successor Is to Be Named Today.

Resignation May Save Coroner from Prosecution.

His Chief Deputy Certain to Be Forced Out.

Coroner Lanterman's resignation will be formally presented to the Board of Supervisors this morning, and a successor will probably be named on the spot.

Among those mentioned for possible appointment is Calvin Hartwell, formerly County Recorder and now Under Sheriff.

Although the first intimation of the fact that the present Coroner had finally been forced to resign was the news article in The Times yesterday morning, the various members of the Board of Supervisors have already been besieged with applications.

Half a dozen local physicians seem to sleep like fawns with their boots at their bedside, waiting for the first clang of the political gong.

But applications were applied by them all day Sunday to the suffering Supervisors.

As the members of the board have not met since the Coroner's resignation became public, no course of action has been agreed upon between them.

Rumor is, however, that Hartwell is under consideration.

Although for some years a doctor has usually been named Coroner in this county, there is no reason why the position should be filled by a physician. It calls for a man with backbone, common sense and unwavering integrity. No medical knowledge is necessary, as an autopsy surgeon is employed anyhow, when there is the least suspicion of medical irregularities.

One of the Supervisors said last night: "We realize that the man we appoint for Coroner must be some one known by the people to be of sterling honesty. The disposition of the entire board in this matter is to get a good man regardless of personal political fences."

Although it is known that Hartwell has not applied for the position and does not know his name has been mentioned, he is regarded as a very possible Coroner.

He made a good clean record as County Recorder and showed ability in that position. His life in Pasadena, where he has a family and a good reputation. During his career as a public official, he has never been mentioned in any discreditable connection.

For some reason, it seems to be conceded that superior William Wilson is to have the naming of the chief deputy of the Coroner. Dr. Lanterman's deputy, Clyde Sage, will, of course, be forced to resign.

Mr. Wilson stated last night that he would favor W. A. McDonald, now a clerk of the Board of Supervisors.

The general belief among politicians is that the criminal charges conceded now to be under investigation by the grand jury, involving Lanterman and Sage, may now be dropped.

The supposition is that the grand jury was supplied with certain information by the political powers to punish Dr. Lanterman when he obstinately refused to resign.

The charges, whether true or not, are of a terrible nature. The public has a right to know the matter to the bottom.

The danger lies, of course, in the fact that the present grand jury is about to go out of existence. The charges may be allowed to die for lack of nourishment while one jury goes out and another comes in.

The rumor is persistent, however, among all politicians, that the resignation of Lanterman is a compromise by the terms of which the fearful criminal charges are not to be pursued deeper by those who undoubtedly control the source of information.

Mr. Hartwell was in bed last night at the respective hour of 2, when telephoned to by The Times, and asked regarding the rumor of his appointment.

He said he hadn't heard a word about it and begged off from expressing any opinion about it in the said hour. He couldn't say a word about it, at least until today, when he secures more information regarding the matter.

It must be an awful shock to wake up from peaceful dreams and find a public office crawling into bed after you.

As The Times stated yesterday, Deputy Coroner Fred Williams will not be disturbed. He has held the position under two Coroners and has performed his duties in an intelligent and satisfactory manner. No want of the scandal which forced his chief to surrender his office attaches to Williams.

GOSPEL TEMPERANCE.

Murphy Introduction Night at Blanchard Hall—Good Talks and Excellent Music.

One of the most successful of the gospel temperance meetings yet held under the leadership of William Murphy, since he took up the work of his father in Blanchard Hall, was that of last night.

The hall was filled and it was the introduction of Mr. Murphy's three sons and their mother to the greater part of the audience. Mrs. Murphy only showed her sweet face and bowed, as did her son, Albin, but Thomas made an address of considerable length, in which he showed Murphy ability on the platform. Francis, named for his grandfather, fairly took the audience by storm with his fine baritone voice, singing two numbers with good effect.

The young man is no novice, for he has traveled in concert, and is now even sought after for work in the same line. He has come here to make his home and will prove a great attraction at the meetings every Sunday night.

Mr. Murphy ended his talk last night on the sad end of a young man who died in the Los Angeles County Hospital, and whose remains were shipped back to his father in Pittsburgh on Saturday night, by Mr. Murphy, who was an old friend of the family. The boy was well raised and started well in life but drank got the better of him, and after a prolonged spree, he was taken to the hospital suffering from "gallbladder consumption," and died in three weeks. His name was Frederick J. Totten, and he had been a resident of this city for something more than a year, but his presence was only made known by a letter from his father, at the last moment. Mr. Murphy dedicated from a strong and seductive temperance lesson for other young men.

Other musical numbers last night were by Little Annie Row, who is a local favorite with the Blanchard Hall audiences, as by Mrs. Marxmiller, each being recalled for a second number.

HIGHWAYMEN, PERHAPS.

Unconscious Man With Pockets Inside Out Found Beside Electric Tracks Near Sherman.

R. Perez of No. 723 Fernando street was found lying beside the Los Angeles-Pacific tracks near Sherman early yesterday morning. He was unconscious. His pockets had been turned inside out, and it is thought he was the victim of highwaymen.

An examination at the Receiving Hospital showed that the man is suffering from severe concussion, contusion on the left side of the head, and severe bruises on the back.

When Perez was discovered his clothes were soaked with rain. Beyond the fact that he roomed on Fernando street, nothing is known of him.

WERE STEALING BY WHOLESALE.

PROCEEDS OF LONG SERIES OF THEFTS RECOVERED.

Hiding Place of Nearly a Thousand Dollars' Worth of Goods Which Had Been Taken from a Tailoring Establishment Discovered by the Detectives—Three Men Arrested.

A cache of stolen goods, valued at $1000, belonging to George P. Taylor's tailoring house, No. 535 South Broadway, which was uncovered yesterday through the work of Detectives Zeigler and Hotick, led to the arrest of C. P. W. Steffer and K. B. Barski. For three months, it is alleged, the men carried on systematic thefts, disposing of the goods at ridiculously low prices. It is estimated that the men sold more than $500 worth.

Steffer is a stock man in Taylor's establishment, and K. B. Barski is employed in Frank Goling's saloon at Seventh street and Maple avenue. The goods were recovered in Barski's room at No. 700 Crocker street. Barski was in bed when the detectives went to his room yesterday and he was placed under arrest. Barski admitted that he had acted as a "fence" and it is said, implicated Steffer in the affair.

Last night Steffer was arrested when he returned to his room in a hotel at Seventh street and Maple avenue. A suitcase filled with stolen property was found in his room. He refused to make any statement about the case, the detectives say.

The cache consisted of several dozen shirts, several dozen suits of silk underwear, and about two dozen fancy vests, ranging from $20 each. There were 300 neckties of the best grade packed in one box and several boxes of cuffs and collars.

An entire shipment of silk suspenders, which was supposed to have been lost, was found. There were also broken lines of stock in gloves and handkerchiefs.

Mr. Taylor identified the stuff as his property. For some time he says, he has been missing boxes of goods, but supposed that they were lost in shipment.

The detectives have been working on the case for several days. They discovered where considerable goods were being sold about the saloon. Barski had been showing the goods and he followed to his room where the cache was found. Steffer will be charged with grand larceny and Barski will be held as an accomplice.

SUBSTITUTE.

STOCKADE MAY BE GIVEN UP.

POLICE OFFICIALS FAVOR PLAN THAT'S CHEAPER.

Assert Terrible Conditions in City Jail Can Be Relieved by Putting Extra Floor in "Bull Pen," Making It a "Double Decker"—Comparatively Inexpensive Scheme.

Instead of a stockade to relieve the terrible situation in the city jail, it is possible that an extra floor may be put into the building instead.

This finds favor with the police officials, who claim that it will save the city $200 a month. They say that while a stockade would seem, at first thought, a cheap way of solving the problem, it would cost more in the end than building a jail big enough to meet the requirements of the town.

In the meantime the plan to put an extra floor across the present "bull pen" is declared feasible.

The present ill-designed jail was built tanks were constructed in one-half the space, and the other half was not utilized.

The tanks are like tiny courts or patios, and tiny cells open into them, like inside staterooms of a ship. Each tank was intended to hold forty-eight prisoners. It was originally planned, as the city grew larger, to put similar cages in the open space. At present the vacant room is used as a "bull pen," the trustees and better class of prisoners being kept there. It is proposed to build a floor half-way up the wall height of this room, making a two-story barracks of it.

Bunks in two or three tiers would be constructed entirely around the upper left, and would accommodate 60 or 100 men.

The floor would probably cost from $1000 to $2000, and it could be completed in two weeks.

A stockade would require a special force of guards and kitchen attendants, and would cost about $2000 a month.

THAW CASE NEARS END.

This Week Will Probably See Termination of Trial of White's Slayer.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.) NEW YORK, Jan. 26.—The Thaw trial tomorrow will enter upon its fourth and probably its last week. The defense has another day of evidence to offer, and the State should have its rebuttal evidence before the jury by Thursday night.

Dist. Atty. Jerome has assumed something of an air of mystery as to the scope of the evidence he will offer in rebuttal of the showing of insanity made by the defense. He it is said he will make an effort to bring up in court some of the secret records of the commission of the crime which were sealed by order of Justice Fitzgerald, who appointed the board solely for the purpose of advising the court as to Thaw's mental condition, and this fact may prove a stumbling block to the District Attorney's plans.

and her household, and she occupied it at 4:45 o'clock this afternoon. Only a very few of Mrs. Eddy's friends knew of her contemplated move.

While there has been much speculation about the Brookline house, no one had guessed aright concerning its future occupant.

"Mrs. Eddy and her household, including Calvin A. Frye, her secretary, with Archibald McEllan as a guest, constituted the party. They left Concord at 2 p.m. on a special train carrying three coaches. The train had been held in the yard until a very few minutes before the time scheduled to leave. It was then run under the shed on the Boston side of the depot, and was boarded by the party, ten or twelve in number.

"The train was transferred to the New York, New Haven and Hartford at Lowell, Mass., whence it was run to South Farmington, where it was transferred to the Boston and Albany road, and proceeded to Chestnut Hill station, where carriages awaited the party and carried them to their new home on Beacon and Hammond streets.

"Here everything was found in full equipment, and supper was served at the usual hour. Except for the three hours required to make the trip, there was no break in the usual routine of the family.

"This move was not prompted by any sudden decision. It is known to some of Mrs. Eddy's friends that she has, for some years, been considering the advisability of returning to this city.

"Her purpose is to be more convenient to the mother church of the denomination—near to its headquarters.

"The whole affair, including the preparation of the house, was in keeping with Mrs. Eddy's usual way of doing things. She weighs matters deliberately and carefully, then acts quickly."

"When the carriages reached the Lawrence mansion a large man, apparently a groom, lifted Mrs. Eddy from her carriage and carried her into the house.

"When a newspaper man and others questioned Mrs. Eddy as to the move, she turned to six tall, powerful men, who stood near him, and ordered that every person be at once put off the grounds. Then he turned and entered the house. His orders were obeyed without delay. The house is to be guarded day and night by twelve men.

TO LIVE IN MANSION.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) BOSTON, Jan. 26.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Two shifts of skilled workmen, one working by day and the other by night, each force numbering nearly 200 men, have in about two months' time transformed the old mansion at No. 334 Beacon street at the corner of Hammond street, in the Chestnut Hill district of Brookline, into a magnificent edifice of about twice its previous size, in preparation for its occupancy by Mrs. Mary Baker E. Eddy.

The original house was an imposing, roomy mansion of stone, built in 1895. In former years it was known as the Dupee estate, and was one of the landmarks of the vicinity. Later it was bought by D. Ashton Lawrence, the Boston banker, who made the estate his home until his untimely death in a railroad accident nearly two and one-half years ago.

For some time the dwelling remained unoccupied, and last year it was bought by Robert P. Walker, a wealthy Chicago real estate dealer and a Christian Scientist, well known in his home city.

Residents of Chestnut Hill supposed the place was to be used as a country residence by Mr. Walker. The price paid for the property is said to have been close to $100,000, and the repairs have cost as much more.

It is said the mansion is also to be the seat of the new institution which Mrs. Eddy announced some weeks ago was to be established for the education of such of the poor as desired to gain a knowledge of Christian Science, and for which she stated that she proposed to set apart $1,000,000.

Southern California Rifles' First Practice.

Some Fine Scores Are Made Despite Wind.

The first rifle and pistol practice of the Southern California Rifles was held yesterday at Haldenburgh Inn, Calhoun Pass, and in spite of unfavorable weather, thirty members of the organization were present. The shooting at targets began at 11 o'clock, and was completed, after the Spanish luncheon of meat, frijoles and tortillas, served by Capt. Steve Quetrola. The aim of the founders of the Rifles is to encourage skill in handling firearms in order that the members may be ready to fight in case of war. Many

Freeman, a former captain in the National Guard, and one of the best riflemen in Southern California, in two rounds at 100 yards, made 47 out of a possible 50. Shooting with his rifle down, and with the stock resting on his forehead, he scored 22 out of a possible 25 at 50 yards. In an exhibition of fancy shooting he broke seven small gourds as they were tossed into the air. L. Giddings, a member of the Yaguero Club, won in the rifle contest, with a score of 48 out of a possible 50. He made 24, with three bullseyes in the next circle, out of a possible 25. P. A. Wolff also made a score of 23. M. Ostrander took third place, making 22 points in five shots, rapid fire, out of a possible 25. P. A. Wolff also made a score of 23. The pistol competition Freeman won by making 44 points out of a possible 50, at 50 yards. J. S. Hendrickson of the Yaguero Club was second, with a score of 42. WOMAN HITS BULLSEYE. Two of the feminine members of the Yaguero Club, Miss Viola Talamantes and Miss H. G. Alinch practiced with pistols, and Miss Talamantes made two bullseyes. A GOOD NAME

EVERY one desires to establish for himself a good name, but it takes time to win the confidence of your fellow men. Truth and perseverance are the alternate rungs on the ladder of success, and he who reaches the top must make no false step.

There are hundreds of cough medicines with all sorts of names, each claiming to be the best, but the test of time will prove whether or not they have established the right to be called the best.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has had thirty-five years of sale and use, and has cured coughs and colds under all conditions, in all countries and climates, and the verdict today is that it has no equal.

Careful selection of the drugs, intelligent and skillful compounding, the entire absence of opium, chloroform, or any other harmful ingredient, and the absolute purity of every article that goes into its composition, has built up and sustained its good name.

These are the things you should remember, and the next time you want a cough medicine, it is worth while to see that you get Chamberlain's and secure the virtues which a good name implies.

Every dealer who sells a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy guarantees it to give satisfaction or he will refund the money.

MUSIC AND THE STAGE.

"Babbie" is, so far, the largest undertaking of Healy's Opera Company. It was dominated last night by the silver voice of Aida Hommi—a matter for which the auditors seemed devoutly thankful. As a whole, the production reflects much credit upon its makers. There are minor flaws and two or three notable delinquencies, but it must be remembered that selecting a cast for the first presentation was a matter occupying the attention of several specialists for many weeks, following which came three months of steady rehearsal. This time the piece has had, in all, five days of preparation.

"Babbie" is one of the Herbert-Smith undertakings, and is universally ambitious in form. The music is tuneful, occasionally of depth and power and frequently abounding in light and dainty passages.

The piece is laid in the Low Countries, and also in France, during the seventeenth century, thus getting away from the established beat of the comic opera. It concerns the usual people of the lyric stage, and the romantic tenor, the bluff soldier, the comic civilian and the idly warbling populace are unmistakable.

Like most of the comic opera products of the present day, this piece has a hard time getting away from much of its dialogue and action seems futile. Originality is apparent in some of the scenes, while others are faithful replicas—potably one entrance in the second act, where Leoncavallo certainly has grounds for an infringement claim. But I suppose if you press this idea of invention too closely, Leoncavallo, in turn, might be besieged by Thomas, the latter quite effectually claiming that some of the effectiveness of "Pagliacci" was drawn from an entrance scene in "Mignon."

Miss Hemmi's voice was especially brilliant and well used in the effective music of the second act. It is hard to believe her as lightness or as kittenish as Fritz Schett, for whom the work was written, but she attracted no imitations, and was sufficient in her own way.

Maude Beatty, as the wife of the Peabody clock-maker, does a strikingly effective bit of low-comedy portraiture.

Mr. Cunningham lends his robust and virile voice and personality to the successful impersonation of Montecarlo, a soldier of fortune.

Eugene Weiner, as Marcel, is insufficient in voice for the somewhat robust tenor music allotted him. Richie Ling, who was with us all summer, was the creator of this part.

Chorus and orchestra do good work, and the conductor has exceptional evidence of his talents.

Every seat in the house filled and apparently every person satisfied, such is the honest and fair report of yesterday's production of "Are You a Mason?" at the Herkman Theater.

"Are You a Mason?" is a three-act farce comedy of the highest merit. The action of the play is enlivened by the assumption by Henry Stockbridge of a woman's part. In this respect, Stockbridge shows his finest ability. He is a vast improvement on "Charley's Aunt," and altogether the most effective female impersonator seen in these parts in many days. The audience screamed and roared and howled itself hoarse. Such a storm of approval has not been heard even at the Burbank in many days.

John W. Burton as Amos Bloodgood, and Louise Boyce as his wife, were easily the best characters in the play. Henry Stockbridge acquitted himself with more than credit in his dual role. His work more than made up for the delinquencies of others. Carroll Marshall, as Lottie, the cook, was rich in body expression, and the opening "hand" which was given her showed the Burbank's regulars' appreciation of her consistently excellent work. H. J. Ginn was an excellent farmer gentleman, and R. Byron Heasley was a whole treat in himself. Altogether, the Burbank company has not put on a more acceptable or pleasing stunt this season than "Are You a Mason?"

"Are You Crazy?" The answer is, "They are."

The fact that this nonsensical hodge-podge is a general and promiscuous adaptation does not bother the audience any, for it is a fact that a good joke or a good plot, no matter how old or how much overworked, can always find some group of appreciative auditors.

The Grand Operahouse programme informs observers that book, lyrics and music are by Frank Danneil, leading man of the show. The word "appropriated" is omitted—perhaps by accident—from that statement.

The plot, which is lively and vigorous for a musical farce, concerns the mixtures and escapades of three men of the same appearance, one of whom is a serious youth, another a "good fellow," in the generally accepted stage meaning of that term, and the third a gentlemanly crook. Of course the jollier is mistaken for a recreant son-in-law the crook for the lover and the lover for the crook.

This basis of the plot is very reminiscent of "Tom, Dick and Harry," which had a vogue some years ago. The largest of the specialties was introduced here long since by Tom Fenwick and Edith Mason, and has been done with varying success by half a dozen other teams. It is an opera burlesque.

Danneil is an effective though somewhat unpolished comedian. The rest of the cast seems thoroughly acceptable to the audience.

George L. Baker is said to be contemplating a summer melodramatic stock at the Los Angeles Theater.

Clarence Drown is interested in the organization of a Texas stock company, for the production of first-class plays, and it is said that Margo Duffett and a number of other local stage-folk are thinking of joining the aggregation.

Julius Albert Jahn is to come to the fore as a director again this year, having been chosen to lead the Saengerfest which is to be given in Los Angeles during September of this year.

Amelia Gardner will open tonight in Chicago, as leading woman for the new Chicago "Witching Hour" company. And it also happens that Lillian Albertson is due to play in the Lake City, in her starring vehicle.

After spending a quiet Sunday in Los Angeles, Jan Kubelka's car was attached to the San Diego Owl train. He will play tonight under the auspices of the Amphion Club of that city, returning to Los Angeles tomorrow morning. He will play here tomorrow night, and will give a return engagement in Los Angeles Thursday. He will leave for the East Friday, playing at Phoenix and Tucson en route to El Paso.

Henry Russell's San Carlo Company is again singing in Chicago, and at Alice Neilson's first appearance, the other night, an admirer sent up over the footlights a magnificent cluster of American Beauty roses. As Miss Neilson smilingly bowed acknowledgment there was a snappy little soprano bark from the middle of the rose bed, and upon investigation her bouquet re-

Wind and Rain Drives Ducks
Into the Country.

Some Clubs Report Good
Luck on Large Birds.

Sport Will Improve Should Weather Be Clear.

Hunters who expect to enjoy any of the duck shooting this season have provided, should neglect no chance to go after the birds, for some of the regulars predict that the game will be scarce from now on until the end of the season. It was only ordinary yesterday at all of the clubs, but this was doubtless due to the storm of Friday and Saturday, which played over yesterday morning. The wind yesterday made the ducks wild and they shot over the clubs with the speed of an express train, many of them going far back inland. The rain had made many puddles all over the back country and there many of the ducks went to feed, and there they remained a greater part of the day.

There was a large number of ducks on the various preserves and also on the ocean Saturday night, but the hunters found that during the night the greater part of them had left. With most of the ducks inland and the wind and rain stirring up the clouds yesterday morning, the Sunday sport was not up to the usual standard. Still, the majority of the hunters had a good time and they could conveniently carry home and should have been satisfied and yet some of them want the limit every time they go out.

The Dominguez had out twelve guns and this was the second largest squad reported. There were six members and six guests and the guests each got from ten to twenty birds. Of the members, F. O. Nelson was the only one to bag the limit. Joe Carson got nineteen; W. W. Hutton and J. R. Smith, eighteen each; J. Bacon, fourteen; and Ed Deiter, twelve. There were nearly all big birds and there were a number of mallards among them.

The Alamitos squad had five sport and no less than thirteen men were shooting. Channing J. Jeffries was entitled to the limit of course, and managed to get it and by Myrick was the other limit man. Commence Dick Dwyer of Arcadia got thirty-two; E. W. Hopperstead, thirty-four; Henry Berry, twenty-six; Clarence Berry, eighteen; and Judge Ed Cole of Arcadia, bagged fifteen. The guests consisted of six or seven horsemen and bookmakers from the race track and they got from ten to twenty-five each.

On the Cerritos, there were seven men and most of them had good luck notwithstanding bad shooting conditions. E. D. Silbert and Walter Clark were the only limit men. Silbert, a guest, got twenty-five; J. K. Urnston, fifteen; F. W. Flint, ten, and F. S. Hicks, a good bag.

On the old Greenview, the birds were flying high and fast. A. M. Goodhue of Long Beach was high with 32; Will Nevitt got 23; T. L. Ely, 22, and George Flint, 18.

There were six men on the Pacific, W. A. Holmes was high with 23; Frank Schumacher had 23; Ed Tuttle, 18; F. M. Notman, 17; F. L. Sawyer, 14, and G. W. Hardwick, 11. Ed Tuttle seems to think that the reason he did not get any more, is because the birds were scared away by the thunder of Saturday night. The greater number of birds were big ones.

The Short Line squad found nearly all sport, and Arthur McFarland was the only limit man. Joe Galbraith had 22; Les Henry, 20; Dr. Rush, 16, and J. Stanford, 14. There were a few canvasbacks shot.

Ed Strang was the only one of the Del Rey squad to take a chance with the weather, and he shot 20 big birds.

There were two men on the Recreation, Gen. East and A. C. Cramer. There was enough rain and thunder to scare the birds, but Gen. East, being a military man, and accustomed to being bagged 19. Mr. Cramer had the real hard luck of the day, and got but one bird, and that a gambel.

The Centinella had but three men out in W. T. Teetzel, J. W. Phelps and H. L. Corson, and they got about ten. There were but two on the New York, Mayor G. M. Jones of Santa Monica getting 21, and E. W. Murphy II. These birds were mostly teal.

The El Patrono squad found a large number of cinnamon teal, most of the big birds being on many good performers. Dick Lacey and Tom Potter shot 29 each, and Johnny Vaughn had 15. The four hunters had bad luck for they saw very few birds. F. E. Edwards got 3; A. H. Wehrle, 3; Bernard Potter, 4; and George Pillsbury had even less.

The majority of the hunters seem to think that the birds will return again this week, and that the shooting will be as good as it was two weeks ago, if there are no more storms.

CAT SHOW ENDS.

Final Day Devoted to the Awarding of Number of Cups and Various Special Prizes.

The third annual show of the Southern California National Cat Club came to an end last night at the Chutes and a fairly good sized crowd of spectators saw the blooded kitties trot their last mews for the year. The programme last night consisted entirely of awarding the special prizes and this was done very quickly.

The winners of the challenge cups were as follows: Whittier cup for best orange male—Mrs. Flora Ristler's Trophy, cup for best silver male, Mrs. James Gorman's Argent Laddie, cup for best blue-eyed white male, Mrs. C. Gorton's King Cupid; cup for best cat in the show, King Cupid; third win cup for best blue male, Dr. John Gilmer's Robin Adair, Jr.

In addition to these cups, there were eight bronze medals given for the best cats of various varieties and also many special prizes. The show has been an unequalled success in every way and it certainly opened the eyes of many people as to the beauties of real show cats.

Rogue Game Postponed.

The rogue game that was scheduled for today at Pasadena between Turner and Greenleaf, has been postponed until Thursday morning, owing to wet grounds.

On Wednesday, in Washington, the American Forestry Association will begin a meeting, during which the forestry problem in all its phases will be discussed by experts, particularly with reference to the future of the paper industry and the proposed forestry service.

BASKETBALL CONTEST.

Play Scheduled at Pasadena Court
Today Between U.S.C. and Crown
City High School.

U.S.C. and Pasadena High School will meet in a game of basketball this afternoon on the Pasadena court. The contest will be largely a practice affair for the varsity, for the latter aggregation easily disposed of the Crown City five in their first game last Thursday, when the Methodists emerged victorious to the tune of 44-16. A number of new men will be given an opportunity to play with the varsity in today's game. Fogel, of the freshmen team, and Swanket of the sophomore five, will both probably play one period, and Henderson may be in condition to enter the game.

Intense interest centers in the first intercollegiate game to be played with Whittier College on Wednesday afternoon on the university court. Last year the Quakers vanquished the Methodists by a one-sided score, but the varsity players have strong hopes of reversing the count in the coming game. The Whittier team cannot boast of the aggregation of former years, and lost the possibility of keeping the championship, held for the last two years, by losing a hard contest to Pomona last week.

CHANGE RULES FOR FOOTBALL.

Modifications Made to Alter
Forward Pass.

Penalty Is Loss of Ball on Illegal Touch.

Holding and Tackling Is to Be Eliminated.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.)

NEW YORK, Jan. 26.—Important changes in the rule governing the forward pass play, which proved of advantage to weaker teams, and other football legislation, were made by the Intercollegiate Football Rules Committee, which concluded its session here last night.

The new rule on the play of the forward pass covers the illegal touching of the ball. When illegally touched, the side making the illegal play loses the ball.

Another rule adopted provides that the committee passed a rule that all penalties, except in the case of a man disqualified, may be decided by the offending side. In the future the field judge will act as timer, instead of the linesman.

Play Scheduled at Pasadena Court
Today Between U.S.C. and Crown
City High School.

U.S.C. and Pasadena High School will meet in a game of basketball this afternoon on the Pasadena court. The contest will be largely a practice affair for the varsity, for the latter aggregation easily disposed of the Crown City five in their first game last Thursday, when the Methodists emerged victorious to the tune of 44-16. A number of new men will be given an opportunity to play with the varsity in today's game. Fogel, of the freshmen team, and Swanket of the sophomore five, will both probably play one period, and Henderson may be in condition to enter the game.

Intense interest centers in the first intercollegiate game to be played with Whittier College on Wednesday afternoon on the university court. Last year the Quakers vanquished the Methodists by a one-sided score, but the varsity players have strong hopes of reversing the count in the coming game. The Whittier team cannot boast of the aggregation of former years, and lost the possibility of keeping the championship, held for the last two years, by losing a hard contest to Pomona last week.

This Is Just What the Simmen Automatic Railway Signal System Will Do

38 Miles of It Is Now Being Installed in Southern California on One of the Great Transcontinental Railways

So many opportunities of doubtful merit are advertised that the company hesitated long before taking this method, but the need for immediate expansion is so urgent, the proofs of reliability so unquestionable, the field so large, and the profits so sure and gratifying, that the delay will be quickly grasped by a class and character of investors who appreciate the unusual opportunity it presents.

In the best judgment of the gentlemen composing the company, no more than the 20,000 shares announced will be sold at any price or at any time, that amount being considered ample for the requirements of the extensions contemplated.

You are urged to call and investigate at once, or send in the coupon and get the book.

BOYLE HEIGHTS.

The Ninth Ward Improvement Association has started on a membership campaign and a determined effort is being made to secure every voter of Boyle Heights. During the past year the association has been very active in securing improvement for the district which it covers, and the members are anxious to induce all citizens of the district to join forces and help it work along. Nearly every work of importance has either been conceived by the association or pushed by it. There yet much that can be accomplished,

The question of fire taps and water mains is still agitating property owners in the newer sections and the "coasters" are very busy. It is estimated that in case of a serious fire, the department would be seriously handicapped by the lack of hydrants, and that these should be provided at once. In many instances the water mains are not large enough, and the wiring of new ones is urged.

Arthur Platt of Brooklyn avenue is seriously ill with pneumonia. He is 70 years old. His son, who lives in Syracuse, N. Y., has been notified, and is en route across the continent. Mr. Platt is one of the old settlers of Boyle Heights, and at one time owned a large amount of real estate in different parts of the city.

The blaze was extinguished after the kitchen and the rear of the cottage had been destroyed. The damage was about $200.
